

We can do more to Draw The Line on sexual violence on campus.

- ✓ Encourage Bystander Intervention
- ✓ Challenge rape culture
- ✓ Boost your campus's sexual violence policies, procedures and existing prevention tools

Draw the Line is a sustainable and interactive bystander-intervention campaign that engages students, institutions and communities in a dialogue about sexual violence. Draw the Line compliments your existing sexual violence policies, procedures and other educational campaigns by challenging myths about sexual violence, encouraging prevention, and equipping bystanders to safely intervene.

Draw the Line is coming to your region

- Join us at a Draw the Line regional session to strengthen your understanding of the campaign and ways to use it in your own campus community
- Strategize and network with colleagues from across your region
- Draw The Line sessions taking place in 4 regions across Ontario. Campus staff, faculty, administration and students welcome!
- Space is limited, so please register in advance. Lunch provided.

Our next session is taking place @ Nipissing University, North Bay, on Tuesday, October 17 from 12:30pm-4pm
