

SEXUAL ASSAULT THE ROAD SHOW

sexualassaultroadshow.org

Calling all sexual assault survivors, activists, and allies!

Amelia Rising Sexual Assault Centre of Nipissing is thrilled to host Sexual Assault: The Roadshow, which is a pop-up, participatory art gallery, housed in a retrofitted, glass fronted shipping container for the month of October 2017. Please join us for the Opening Ceremony on October 3, 2017 at 5:30 PM at Big Medicine Studio, 161 Couchie Memorial Drive.

Sexual Assault: The Roadshow will serve as a meeting place, studio, and exhibition site for our community to demonstrate the power of art to "talk back" to sexual assault.

Sexual Assault: The Roadshow will travel throughout the City of North Bay:

*October 3-9; Big Medicine Studio
October 10-15; North Bay Police Service
October 16-22; Nipissing University
October 23-29; North Bay City Hall*

Sexual Assault: The Roadshow is a project by sexual assault activist Jane Doe and artist/activist Lillian Allen.

Meg Lozicki Paulin, a local multi-disciplinary installation and performance artist will be co-creating workshops at each of the above stops. Art generated will be on display for the Final Exhibition at City Hall and may be chosen to travel to the Roadshow's next stop! Call 705.840.2403 or email info@ameliarising.ca to register for workshops.

We invite you to stop by during community open house hours (please visit ameliarising.ca for a full calendar of events). Visitors will have an opportunity to explore the gallery, chat with Amelia Rising Sexual Assault Centre of Nipissing's staff and/or volunteers, as well as to make their own art!
